

Burlington County ESL Consortium Meeting Wednesday, October 18, 2017

The Burlington County ESL Consortium will meet on Wednesday, October 18, 2017, at 4:00 in Lumberton, NJ. Ms. LeighAnn Matthews will do a presentation called “Empower ELLs using “Seesaw” (a digital portfolio). Learn how to create a digital student portfolio using the website/app Seesaw and discover the specific benefits of using it with our English language learners. Build an ongoing home-school connection, and empower your ELLs all year long using Seesaw!

All ESL teachers and education professionals are invited to attend. Please contact, Kathy Fernandez at kfernandez@lumberton.k12.nj.us for additional information.

The meeting will take place in the Media Center of Ashbrook Elementary School, Lumberton, NJ at 4:00.

Please enter the Media Center through its own exterior door to the left of the main entrance; do not go to the school office

Directions to Media Center, Ashbrook Elementary School 33 Municipal Drive, Lumberton, NJ 08048

From the west – Travel on Rt. 38 toward Mt. Holly. You will see signs that you are entering Lumberton. You will past through an area of car dealerships and small strip malls. You will see a sign for the Lumberton Plaza. Eayrestown Road is immediately after the Plaza. Make a right onto Eayrestown Road. (See below for directions on Eayrestown Rd.)

From the east – travel on Rt. 38 toward Mt. Holly and after the light at the Dollar Tree Plaza there will be a sort of jug handle to your right. The sign says Historic Mt. Holly. At the traffic light turn left then go through the light, straight back across Rt. 38, and onto Eayrestown Road.

On Eayrestown road – Travel about 1.3 miles on Eayrestown Road. Turn right onto Municipal Drive and travel 1 mile. Make the right onto Ashbrook School entrance, do not turn left, and continue straight into the parking lot to the right of the school building (the Municipal Building side). Enter the Media Center through its own exterior door to the left of the main entrance; do not go to the school office.
